

SCOTLAND: My dream destination

---

I live in Australia so Scotland is the other side of the world for me but my auntie lives in the UK and she has told me a lot about it so I would really really love to visit it!

Apparently it is full of mountains - the Highlands - and lakes called lochs - and there is a famous monster in one :The Loch Ness Monster - see http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Loch\_Ness\_Monster

The weather is usually very rainy which means it is a very green country. The two main cities are Glasgow and Edinburgh, on opposite sides of the land but not very far away by our standards. Edinburgh is a very historical city with a castle and Glasgow people are said to drink a lot and eat deep fried Mars Bars. Their national dish is haggis which is sheep's intestine but I don't think they eat it all the time. I think they probably eat the same as us normally. They enjoy celebrating the New Year and also they have a special night Burns' Night to honour their national poet Rabbin Burns.

The highest part of Scotland is Ben O'Groat.