

My dream destination – ENGLAND

I've always wanted to go to England! I love football and it was invented there. I also love Manchester United! It is my dream to go to Old Trafford and watch them play.

England is famous for lotsof things. It has one of the oldest monarchies in the world, so has plenty of castles and historic mansions to go and visit.

London is the capital city. All the best tourist attractions are there. It has the London Eye, the Tower of London, the Houses of Parliament, Saint Paul's Cathedral and Buckingham Palace -

England is meant to be very similar to Scotland and Wales, which together make up the United Kingdom. Scotland is having a vote on independence in 2014, so maybe if the countries break apart they will become more different.

I hope I will get to go to England one day, because is a very important country in Australian history and culture...but I think really I just want to watch football.
